

Comparison Assignment: Class 2-8

Alexandra Porter
FASH 247 Prof Kroener
Spring 2016 M/W 2pm

Class 2 The Ancient World: Sumer, Babylonia, Assyria & Egypt

c. 3500 – 600 BC

Class 2 The Ancient World: Sumer, Babylonia, Assyria & Egypt

1a. Sumer: Votive Statue, c. 3500-600 BC

- Kaunakes, tiered skirt that would typically be made of wool
- Kohl lined eyes as a form of protection against sun & debris

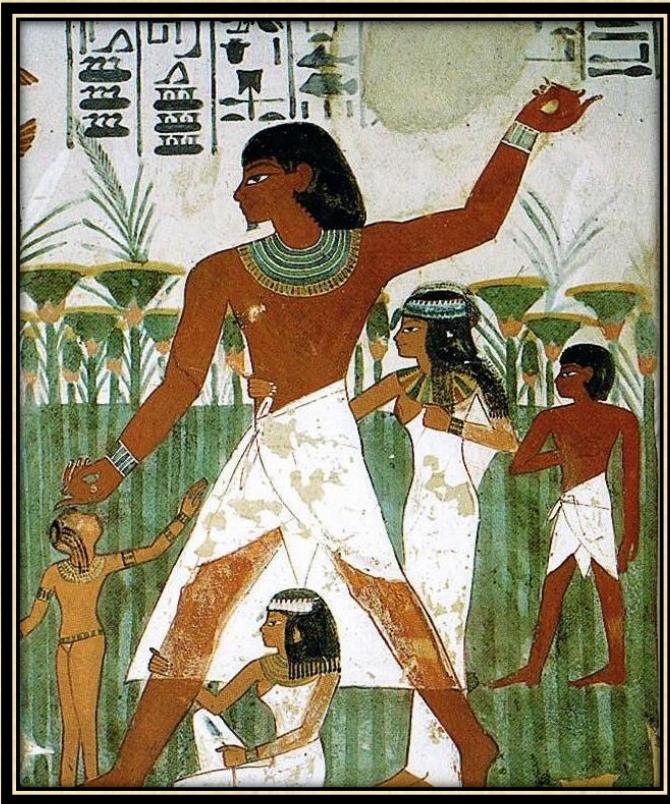

1b. Aquilano.Rimondi Spring 2009

- Kaunakes type garment because of the tiers of fringe
- Adapted since it is more of a dress than a skirt

Class 2 The Ancient World: Sumer, Babylonia, Assyria & Egypt

2a. Ancient Egypt: 18th Dynasty c. 1543-1292 BC

- Passium, half-moon neck piece
- Schenti, wrapped linen skirt

2b. Chanel Pre-Fall 2012

- Passium type neck piece, greatly resembles those of ancient Egyptian times

Class 2 The Ancient World: Sumer, Babylonia, Assyria & Egypt

3a. Assyria: King Ashurnasirpal II, 883 BC

- Fez, high brimless hat
- Long curled hair and beard, men's beauty ideal in ancient Assyria

3b. Aquilano.Rimondi Spring 2009

- Fez hat, very similar to those of the ancient world

Class 2 The Ancient World: Sumer, Babylonia, Assyria & Egypt

4a. Ancient Egypt: Middle Kingdom, c. 2134-786 BC

- Shenti, wrapped linen skirt with sheer overskirt, can often see through to loincloth
- Circlet, thin headband

4b. Burberry Spring 2014

- Shenti style skirt, sheer and can see through to undergarment

Class 2 The Ancient World: Sumer, Babylonia, Assyria & Egypt

5a. Ancient Egypt: Priest in the 13th Dynasty, c.1773-1650 BC

- Leopard skins worn as a wrap by ancient Egyptian priests
- Schenti, wrapped linen skirt

5b. Dolce & Gabbana Fall 2012

- Leopard fur cape is reminiscent of priests' wraps

Class 3 The Ancient World:
Crete, Greece c. 2900-300 BC
Etruria, Ancient Rome c. 800 BC-AD 400

Class 3 The Ancient World: Crete, Greece, Etruria & Ancient Rome

1a. Crete: Faience figurine, c. 1600 BC

- Corselet, tight bodice that stops below the bust, is the forerunner to the stays and corset
- U-shaped apron

1b. Victoria's Secret Fashion Show 2015

- Corselet style piece exposes bust and tucks in waist

Class 3 The Ancient World: Crete, Greece, Etruria & Ancient Rome

2a. Etruria: c. 2900-300 BC

- Perizoma, Etruscan loincloth
- Curled hair, men's beauty ideal in Etruria

2b. Dolce & Gabbana Spring 2011

- Resembles the perizoma in usage and structural lines

Class 3 The Ancient World: Crete, Greece, Etruria & Ancient Rome

3a. Ancient Rome: Athlete, AD 200-300

- Subligaria, wrapped loincloth for women
- Strophium, breast band, first bra-like garment

3b. Balmain Spring 2010

- Fabric placement, drape and fold mimics the shape of the Subligaria

Class 3 The Ancient World: Crete, Greece, Etruria & Ancient Rome

4a. Ancient Rome, c. 800 BC-AD 400

- Stolla, slip dress worn over tunic by free married women
- Palla, draped shawl or scarf

4b. Rag & Bone Fall 2015

- Slip dress worn over shirt is reminiscent of the ancient Greek stolla

Class 3 The Ancient World: Crete, Greece, Etruria & Ancient Rome

5a. Ancient Greece c. 550-480 BC

- Ionic Chiton, draped tunic with multiple pins down the arm
- Himation, draped shawl exposing one arm

5b. BCBG Max Azria Spring 2010

- Sleeve shape and drape similar to that of the ionic chiton, as if there were pins along the arm

Class 4 The Middle Ages

Early c. 300-1300

Late c. 1300-1500

Class 4 The Middle Ages

1a. Early Middle Ages: Saint Demetrios, 1000-1050

- Tablion, decorative square
- Paludamentum, tunic and cloak

1b. Maxime Simoëns Fall 2011

- Tablion type applique because of the square shape and placement on the upper body

Class 4 The Middle Ages

2a. Early Middle Ages c. 300-1000

- Braies, linen underdrawers
- Hose, tights worn by men

2b. Nicholas K Spring 2014

- Pants are very similar to braies because of the loose fit and cropped length

Class 4 The Middle Ages

3a. Early Middle Ages c. 300 – 1300

- Coif, close-fitted linen cap
- Chemise, linen undershirt

3b. Alexander McQueen Spring 2001

- Tight fitted cap closely resembles the medieval coif

Class 4 The Middle Ages

4a. Late Middle Ages 14th century

- Cote, 14th century gown
- Headdress, elaborate shape typical of the Medieval times

4b. Valentino Spring 2015

- Long sleeved, simple floor length gown similar to the cote

Class 4 The Middle Ages

5a. Late Middle Ages: Archangel Gabriel, 1434-36

- Cope, voluminous cloak
- Bejeweled crown, highly decorative sign of status

5b. Dolce & Gabbana Fall 2012

- Cape is similar to the cope in volume and cut

Class 5 The Renaissance

c. 1400-1600

Class 5 The Renaissance

1a. Renaissance: 15th century

- Parti hose, tights with different colored legs worn by men
- Doublet, short fitted jacket

1b. Hiromichi Nakano Spring 2015

- Reminiscent of the parti hose since each leg is a different color

Class 5 The Renaissance

2a. Renaissance: Queen Elizabeth I, 1590

- Blackwork, black thread embroidery
- Ruff, highly pleated linen neck piece

2b. Valentino Fall 2012

- Fine black embroidery is similar to the Renaissance blackwork

Class 5 The Renaissance

3a. Renaissance: 16th century

- Chopine, tall platform shoes
- Rosettes, decorative floral pieces

3b. Jan Taminiau Spring 2011

- Chopine style heels because of the vase-like shape of the platform

Class 5 The Renaissance

4a. Renaissance: c. 16th century

- Doublet, short fitted jacket
- Hose, tights worn by men

4b. Sheguang Hu Spring 2012

- Jacket is similar to the doublet with its cropped silhouette, tight fit and puffed sleeves, which some doublets had

Class 5 The Renaissance

5a. Renaissance: c. 1500

- Slashing, intentional decorative cuts made in fabric
- Ruff, highly pleated neck piece

5b. Alexander McQueen Fall 2013

- Cut details on the sleeve are reminiscent the slashing technique

Class 6 The Northern Renaissance

c. 1500-1600

Class 6 The Northern Renaissance

1a. Northern Renaissance: Prince Hercule Francois, 1596

- Trunk hose, wide breeches emphasized the hips
- Plume hat, hat with a feather accent

1b. Central Saint Martens Fall 2006

- Garment resembles the trunk hose in width, length and volume

Class 6 The Northern Renaissance

2a. Northern Renaissance: 1528

- Layers of gold chains, signifies Spanish style
- Cote, gown (transition phase from Middle Ages)

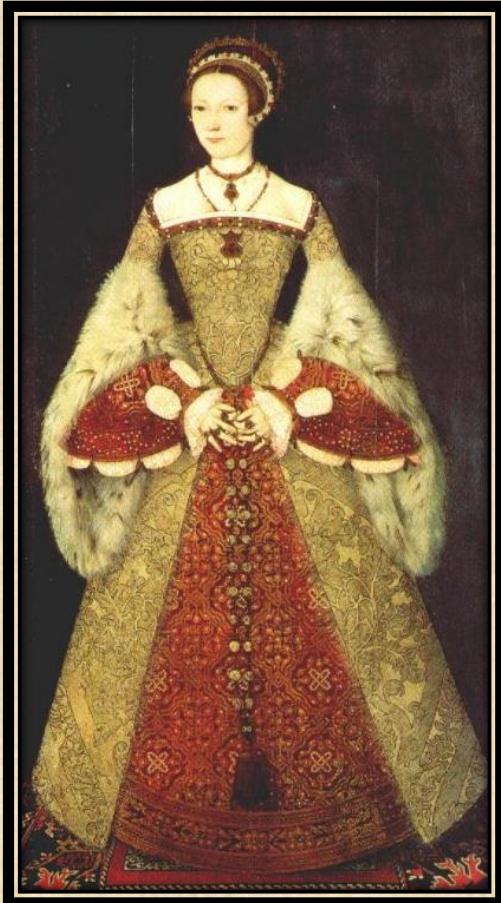

2b. Givenchy Fall 2008

- Layers of gold chains mimics the Spanish style during the Northern Renaissance

Class 6 The Northern Renaissance

3a. Northern Renaissance: Catherine Parr, 1545.

- Farthingale, hoop under skirt for shape and support
- Petticoat, first layer dress visible under gown

3b. Alexander McQueen Spring 2013

- Hoop similar to the farthingale in structure

Class 6 The Northern Renaissance

4a. Northern Renaissance: 16th century

- Ropa, loose fitted overdress
- Paining, technique of pulling the camisa through slashes

4b. Valentino Spring 2013

- Cape mimics the ropa in usage and length

Class 6 The Northern Renaissance

5a. Northern Renaissance: 16th century

- Codpiece, protective piece that was padded to make genital area more prominent
- Slashing, technique of intentionally cutting fabric

5b. Moncler Gamme Bleu Spring 2012

- Codpiece type element in placement and prominence

Class 7 The Seventeenth Century

c. 1600-1700

Class 7 The Seventeenth Century

1a. Francois Clouet, 17th century

- Ruff, circular lace collar worn around neck
- Plume hat, hat with feather accent

1b. Alexander McQueen Fall 2013

- Neck piece very similar to 17th century ruff

Class 7 The Seventeenth Century

2a. Queen Elizabeth I, c. 1600

- Conch, sheer cape with standing collar
- Stemma, pearls hanging off headdress

2b. Victoria's Secret Fashion Show 2009

- Structure similar to the conch in arched shape and placement about head

Class 7 The Seventeenth Century

3a. 17th Century

- Jack boots, tall rugged 17th century boot
- Butterfly spurs, winged attachment with spurs at the back

3b. Gucci Resort 2008

- Mimic the jack boot in height and rugged style

Class 7 The Seventeenth Century

4a. 17th Century

- Petticoat Breeches, full breeches that often resembled skirts
- Canons, ruffled edges of breeches

4b. Alexander McQueen Spring 2009

- Reminiscent of the petticoat breeches in length and volume

Class 7 The Seventeenth Century

5a. 17th century

- Mantua, bodice is connected to skirt
- Cravat, neck band

5b. Oscar de la Renta Fall 2012

- Resembles the mantua because the outer layer of the skirt is connected to the bodice, and is tucked and draped

Class 8 The Eighteenth Century

1700-1790

Class 8 The Eighteenth Century

1a. Late 18th Century

- Pannier, wide structure under skirt to add width
- Stomacher, decorative panel inserted into front of bodice

1b. Corrie Nielsen Spring 2013

- Structure is similar to the pannier with its wide shape, along with the v shape created that is prevalent in the 18th century

Class 8 The Eighteenth Century

2a. 18th Century: “The Two Cousins” by Watteau, c. 1717-1718

- Sack back dress, dress with pleated cape-like piece connected at the top of the back
- Camisa, white undershirt visible under sleeve

2b. Gucci Spring 2011

- Cape connected to back of dress mimics the sack back dress

Class 8 The Eighteenth Century

3a. Rococo: Lady Elizabeth Stanley, c. 1753-1797

- Chemise à la reine, “chemise of the queen”, relaxed gown sometimes worn without corset underneath
- High-piled fluffy hair made fashionable by Marie Antoinette

3b. Oscar de la Renta Spring 2012

- A modern take on the chemise à la reine because of the relaxed and simple nature, not fitted to the body

Class 8 The Eighteenth Century

4a. 18th Century: Francisco Cabarrús, 1788

4b. John Galliano Spring 2013

- Ditto suit, all suit components are of the same fabric
- Tricorn hat, hat with three points, often held underarm when not worn

- A modern take on the ditto suit since the entire suit is made from the same fabric

Class 8 The Eighteenth Century

5a. 18th Century: "Dr. Charles Chauncey M.D." by Hayman, 1747

- Banyan, wide-sleeved morning wrap worn at home, often in presence of visitors
- Bob wig, fashionable wig of short curls

5b. Jontaro Saito Spring 2015

- Kimono sleeve wrap similar to the banyan in cut and length